ROUNDUP HIGHLIGHTS

- Welcome Reception with Triple Creek Ranch Wranglers. Visit with Jimmy, the local hatter.
- Cowboy Basics Day! Learn the parts of the horse, catch and saddle the horse, mount, ride and tie your horse independently—try your hand at roping.
- Branding Day! Don't wear your best - you're going to be a mess! Round up the herd and be part of an old-fashioned branding. (Not for the faint of heart.) Learn to sort cows, run a chute, vaccinate, wrestle calves and brand.
- Rodeo Day! A play day on horseback. Put your riding skills to the test. Timed events will include barrel racing, pole bending and many other classic rodeo events. No broncs.

seventh annual spring vintners series

FRIDAY, MAY 14 - MONDAY, MAY 17

Flora Springs Event Weekend

Flora Springs is a family endeavor that optimizes three generations of hard work, dedication and team effort. The vitality of the Flora Springs family is obvious as they set about the task of growing great grapes and making world-class wines. Even the name Flora Springs has significance. Flora is the matriarch, and the spring refers to the natural water source on the estate. Flora Springs has flowed uninterrupted through Napa Valley winemaking history.

THURSDAY, MAY 20 - SUNDAY, MAY 23

Chappellet Event Weekend

Chappellet - Pritchard Hill, located on the rugged eastern slopes of the Napa Valley, has become synonymous with powerful hillside Cabernet Sauvignon. Donn and Molly Chappellet first tapped its potential with their landmark Cabernets of 1969 and 1970. After three decades of producing extraordinary Cabernets and with the guidance of Cyril and Blakesley Chappellet, they are now making some of the finest wines in their history.

Koenig Event Weekend

Koenig Vineyards has been producing hand-crafted varietal wines in Idaho's Snake River Valley since 1995. The high-altitude, volcanic soils and warm climate of the Snake River Valley are ideally suited to many varietals, allowing winemaker Greg Koenig to produce small lots of award-winning and highly acclaimed wines. Particular specialties include Rhone-style wines from Viognier and Syrah, as well as traditional Ice Wine from Riesling.

THURSDAY, JUNE 3 - SUNDAY, JUNE 6

Fidelitas Event Weekend

Fidelitas, Latin for faithful, loyal and true, is a family-owned winery on Red Mountain. Veteran winemaker and owner, Charlie Hoppes, recently celebrated his 22nd harvest in the Washington wine industry. Fidelitas is faithful to Cabernet Sauvignon, loyal to classic Bordeaux winemaking techniques, and true to Washington State's unique terroir. Fidelitas wines are handcrafted and aged in small lots, creating wines of exceptional character, varietal expression and structure.
